(ii) Rosa was a pretty young girl. Bingu was a handsome young lad. Bingu had a soft corner in his heart for Rosa. Rosa too was responsive to Bingu’s wishes. They met each other regularly. Rosa’s brother Chandi did not like the affair between Rosa and Bingu as Bingu was from a poor family. One day when Chandi came home Bingu and Rosa were having a cordial chat seated close to each other on the verandah settee. Chandi could not tolerate the scene. He shouted at Bingu. “you rascal what business have you here” Bingu said, “Mind your own business. I have come to sea Rosa” Chandi got angry. He took a door bar and gave a blow on Bingu’s head. Blood started oozing out. Rosa jumped towards her brother and snatched the door bar before Chandi could give the second blow.

Bingu went to the Police Station to make a complaint. Write the statement Bingu made to the Police Officer.

(iii) The person who drove the car saw the straight and wide road. Less vehicular traffic compelled him to drive at a high speed. His friend occupying the front seat sensed some danger and asked his friend to reduce the speed. The driver ignored it. His friend requested for the second time too to reduce the speed. The driver did not listen to it as he was thrilled to drive along the wide carpetted road. There was a bend in front and he could not take it in the speed he came. The car went straight jumping off the road and knocked against a big mara tree. Front portion of the car got smashed and the two persons who were on the front seats were killed. However the third person who was seated on the rear seat escaped with minor injuries.

Write the statement the third person made to the Police.
